

DEVON - Jurassic Jewel

Sidmouth

This is a new destination for Memory Lane and we're really excited about the tour we've arranged for you! Sidmouth is the place the poet John Betjeman called "A town caught still in a timeless charm." We think you'll find this is still true. It's certainly a beautiful resort, with its famous Regency architecture, its beautiful gardens, leisurely walks, beach and majestic red cliffs. These were formed some 200 million years ago, by the way, and are one of the features of the Jurassic Coast, on which the resort proudly stands and to which people come from all over the world.
