

PENTIRE - Cornish Garden Tour

Pentire is renowned for its beaches, which are among the best in Europe. Surfers congregate here in large numbers and provide endless hours of spectator sport when the surf is "up".

But all the nearby beaches, which many find within comfortable walking distance, will reward those who take a look. They really are spectacular. Some are in small, secluded coves. Others have all the amenities. There are seemingly endless expanses of golden sand, magnificent cliffs which attract ravens and a variety of wild plants. Views abound here, particularly along the coast and out to sea. It's dramatic, it's exciting, it's Cornish!
