

OBERRAMMERGAU & AUSTRIAN TYROL

The Passion Play takes place every 10 years, in 2010 the timings of the play have been changed making our 2 day stay in Oberammergau very attractive, and allowing more time to visit this interesting and popular Bavarian village. While here we stay in private houses for two nights half board, after our visit to the Passion Play we travel on into the Austrian Tyrol, the famous Ziller Valley, and the wonderful little town of Mayrhofen. It is here we spend 5 nights at the family run hotel Neue Post. There will be time to relax, PLUS 3 day excursions are included in the tour price.

ITINERARY:

Day 1 We travel south and cross the channel into France, staying overnight in Metz - a good three star hotel with dinner/B&B.

Day 2 Today we travel onto Oberammergau arriving late afternoon. We stay in private houses in the villages for two nights with evening meal and breakfast included.

Day 3 Morning free to spend in the town. In the afternoon we start with the first part of the play, with a break for dinner which is included. Then the play continues until about 10.30 when the local bus will return you to the private houses, for a good nights sleep.

Day 4 We leave Bavaria today, travelling via Innsbruck into the Zillar Valley to Mayrhofen and the Hotel Neue Post. We have 5 nights stay here at this 3 family run hotel which includes three day excursions and a day at leisure.

Day 5-8 Mayrhofen with day excursions.

Day 9 Today we head back into Germany with suitable stops during the day, and overnight stay in Sindelfingen for dinner bed and breakfast.

Day 10 Crossing the Rhine into France we journey on to the 3 hotel Reims for our overnight stop. Close to the city centre why not have pleasant stroll along the waterway or to the Cathedral.

Day 11 We return to the French coast and our crossing to UK and arriving home early evening.
