

ARGYLL - Dunoon

Dunoon is the largest town in Argyll. It's built around two bays, between which is the site of the former Dunoon castle. There's an excellent view of the town from here. Your visit will be memorable. The scenery really is unparalleled in these parts. Oh yes, and we always find the people so friendly. Take a stroll, as they do, through the Botanic Gardens or the Victorian town centre. You'll be tempted, we know, by the tea rooms and shops. But don't worry: you're on holiday!

THE ESPLANADE HOTEL ★★★★★

Family owned since the days when the Glaswegians used to sail "doon the water" for their holidays, the hotel stands on the West Promenade, overlooking the sea. This is a traffic-free area, just a short walk from the shops and town centre. We confess that this hotel has long been one of our real favourites. Apart from its other virtues, we love to sit in the lounge and savour the views of the Clyde!
