

LLANDUDNO

Elegant Llandudno is the largest resort in Wales, impressive in itself and conveniently close to the Medieval walled town of Conwy. Stunningly situated between the Great and Little Ormes, Llandudno has two wonderful beaches. These are the award-winning North Shore and the quieter sand-duned West Shore.

It has a lively and bustling town centre with broad streets and fascinating Victorian verandas which add to the distinct architectural style of the place. With its promenade, pier, art gallery, museums, tramway and stunning scenery, the town offers an irresistible blend of tradition and beauty. This is a place to enjoy all year round, even when it's in the grip of a spectacular storm! In the spring & summer, it's just a dream.

QUEEN'S HOTEL ★★☆☆

The Queen's Hotel, located on the sea-front, affords excellent views of the Great and Little Ormes. It offers excellent cuisine and good standards of entertainment. You will receive a warm welcome and efficient service from its staff. The hotel, like the town itself, mixes Victorian elegance and modern facilities. Many rooms enjoy spectacular views of the sea and promenade. Lifts serve all floors. Wheel chair access is easy. One of the three fully licensed bars overlooks the sea.
